

FIRST AMENDMENT ISSUES: DO ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS?

October 6, 2020 | Events

JSH partners Michele Molinario and Joseph Popolizio will present, "First Amendment Issues: Do Actions Speak Louder Than Words?" during the 2020 PRIMA Institute Virtual Conference.

Friday, October 23, 2020 | 11am – 12pm ET

Offering a new look at the First Amendment and emerging issues facing law enforcement officers, this presentation will focus on the law governing the right to protest. This presentation will also emphasize recognizing and avoiding infringement on an individual's First Amendment rights, as well as the defenses to First Amendment retaliation cases and the line between expressive free speech and disruption.

Learn more and register at PRIMACentral.org/Education/PRIMA-Institute.

PRIMA Institute (PI) is an innovative educational symposium comprising fundamental risk management curriculum, outstanding faculty, and excellent networking opportunities. New and seasoned risk professionals who seek to learn more about emerging trends, best practices and gain insight into current management techniques should attend.

The Public Risk Management Association (PRIMA) is a one-stop resource for education and training, risk resources and networking opportunities for public sector risk managers. PRIMA is the largest risk management association dedicated solely to the practice of risk management in the public sector.

Michele Molinario focuses her practice in the areas of law enforcement defense, correctional defense, employment law and governmental liability. An experienced trial attorney, she has tried both state and federal jury and bench trials and administrative law hearings.

Joseph Popolizio maintains a diverse complex litigation practice representing public and private sector clients in the areas of governmental liability, civil rights, law enforcement and corrections defense, wrongful death, and personal injury.