

JOHN GREGORY TO PRESENT ON ARBITRATING COMPLEX CASES AT CONSTRUCTION DEFECT CONFERENCE

October 27, 2021 | Events, Presentations

JSH construction law attorney John Gregory will present on arbitrating complex construction cases at the Perrin Conferences' National Construction Defect Conference on November 11.

During his session, "Arbitrating a Complex Construction Case in Today's World," John will serve as a panelist to discuss the future of virtual arbitrations and mediations in a post-pandemic world in addition to sharing practical tips. He will be joined by Thomas Cate, Director of Construction and Industrial Practice at Rinkus Consulting Group in Salt Lake City; Ryan Coons, CPCU, AIC, Director of Construction Defect Claims for Amerisure in Canonsburg, PA; and Beth-Ann Schulman, Esq., chair of the construction law group at the law firm Boyd & Jenerette, P.A. in Orlando, FL.

National Construction Defect Conference

The Ritz-Carlton

Fort Lauderdale, Florida

November 10 – 12, 2021

The two-day conference features educational programming includes thought-provoking panel discussions on professional and general liability, handling excess claims, innovation of technology, growing trend of women in construction, the judicial perspective, COVID-19 and the related litigation, ethical issues, tenders in the construction defect context, and more.

John Gregory represents clients in a variety of industries, including construction, hospitality and child care. He focuses his defense practice in the areas of construction defect, dram shop liability and general civil defense litigation. He was named a Southwest Super Lawyers Rising Star for construction litigation in 2020 and 2021 as well as one of Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in construction law for 2022.