
Manufacturers, pilots, airlines and airports are among the many clients who rely on our aviation lawyers to navigate the complex legal issues related to aviation. For more than 20 years, the firm has successfully and effectively represented aviation clients in every facet of the industry, including:

- Aerial application Airline liability
- Airport liability
- Aviation products liability
- General and corporate aircraft accidents
- General and premises liability
- Hull damage
- Subrogation claims
- Employment/workers' compensation
- Mid-air collisions
- Design, manufacturing and failure-to-warn claims
- Helicopter design, repair and operation
- Airframe repairs
- Engine maintenance and overhaul
- Propeller failures
- Airport operations and security
- Piloting error claims

We counsel clients in all aspects of state and federal laws, providing skilled representation in the courtroom as well as the boardroom. Whether overseeing accident investigations or handling routine regulatory matters, we are dedicated to providing the best legal counsel and strategies to further our clients' goals.

RELATED INDUSTRIES

Insurance

Manufacturers

Recreation & Amusement

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Partners

Gary Linder

John Masterson

Ryan McCarthy

Kenneth Moskow