Allison Beaulieu is a member of JSH's New Mexico Office, where she handles wrongful death and personal injury, and civil rights defense, municipal liability, and employment matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Allison worked for the District Attorney's Office for the Second Judicial District of New Mexico and the City of Albuquerque City Attorney's Office, where she gained valuable trial experience prosecuting DWI and domestic violence cases, as well as defending 42 U.S.C. 1983 and tort claims. She also worked at two other firms where she focused on litigating and defending clients in insurance defense, wrongful death, trucking litigation, and other matters.

While attending the William S. Boyd School of Law at UNLV, Allison worked for the United State's Attorney's Office for the District of Nevada, Criminal Division, as an extern law clerk, conducting legal research, drafting response motions, and participating as second chair in a petty misdemeanor trial. She also worked as a student attorney and extern law clerk with Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada's Children's Attorneys Project.
