Ashley Caballero-Daltrey is part of the firm's appellate team where she represents clients in federal and state appellate matters and dispositive motions. Before joining JSH, Ashley worked as a law clerk for Vice Chief Justice Ann Scott Timmer of the Arizona Supreme Court. She focuses her practice on municipal law, personal injury, bad faith, and premises liability. Ashley has published articles and spoken on appellate issues including appeals for grazing permits on public lands, unique citation issues, and special action procedures.

While earning her law degree, Ashley served as editor-in-chief of the Arizona Law Review and worked as a research assistant for the second edition of Cases and Materials on Advanced Torts: Economic and Dignitary Torts. Ashley also participated in several moot court competitions.

In her spare time, Ashley enjoys learning new languages (she's advanced in French and proficient in German), reading, and horseback riding.
