Brian Cuevas works in the firm's transportation, auto and products liability group. He gained legal experience as a summer associate at JSH in 2018, and as a legal intern for The Florence Immigrant & Refugee Rights Project and with the ACLU of Arizona. Active in his law school community, Brian served as a writer for the Law Journal for Social Justice, volunteered as a Student Ambassador, and was a member of the Equal Justice Works AmeriCorps, Moot Court, Chicano Latino Law Students Association, and Corporate and Business Law Society. He earned top marks in his Legal Research and Writing, and Legal Advocacy courses, and was a recipient of a Merit-Based Tuition Scholarship.

Brian earned his undergraduate degree from ASU, graduating summa cum laude with a Major in Justice Studies and Minor in Philosophy. In 2015, he worked as a legislative intern for the Arizona House of Representatives and excelled at researching and crafting detailed briefs on circulating bills for members of the House. With exceptional grades and dedication to higher learning, Brian earned the Arizona Regent Full-Tuition Scholarship, was a Dean's List Scholar all eight semesters, and was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society.

Born in Mexico and raised in Arizona, Brian is fluent in written and oral Spanish, and is an experienced English-to-Spanish/Spanish-to-English interpreter. Outside the firm, Brian enjoys traveling, golfing, playing fantasy football, and working out.
