Evann works in the firm's transportation, auto, products and general liability trial group. During law school, she gained legal experience as a summer associate at JSH and as a legal intern with the Community Legal Services Housing Authority. While refining her legal writing skills, Evann earned the CALI Excellence for the Future award for Intensive Legal Research and Writing. Her law school activities included membership with the Corporate and Business Law Society, and serving as writer and Managing Editor for the Sports and Entertainment Law Journal during her 3L.

While pursuing her undergraduate degree, Evann played for the Bellarmine Knights women's tennis team and was named MVP and team captain her senior year. She was also selected for the All-Conference team during her junior and senior years. Evann's discipline, skill, and hard work earned her the John T. Loftus Award for Athletic and Academic Excellence.

In her free time, Evann continues to play tennis, and enjoys hiking, traveling, and playing beach volleyball.
