Jacob Zitar is a dedicated and knowledgeable associate attorney joining our firm to handle General Liability matters, including auto and premises liability. He obtained his Juris Doctor from the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in political science from Arizona State University.

During his time at law school, Jacob demonstrated his commitment to the legal profession by serving as a Judicial Extern for the Maricopa County Superior Court. In this role, he honed his legal skills by conducting in-depth research, analyzing case-specific legal questions, preparing legal memoranda, and creating case summaries.

Furthermore, Jacob gained hands-on experience as a limited practice student attorney, where he conducted intake interviews, performed case reviews for pending cases before the Arizona Court of Appeals and Arizona Supreme Court, participated in the mediation process, and developed effective legal strategies for litigation. Notably, he also drafted, edited, and submitted two amicus briefs to the Supreme Court covering First Amendment concepts.

In his spare time, Jacob enjoys swimming, playing games with his family, and hanging out with his dogs.
