Michael Alan Bayham joins JSH as an associate attorney where he will be working on transportation, professional liability, and other general liability matters.

After graduating from ASU's Sandra Day College of Law, Michael worked as a law clerk in a plaintiff's personal injury firm. Michael also gained experience clerking for a trust and estate firm. Prior to law school, Michael worked as a volunteer teacher at Loyola Academy at Brophy College Preparatory School.

During law school, Michael was a research extern at the Centre for American Legal Studies at Birmingham City University School of Law. This research focused on mitigating the spread of COVID-19 in correctional facilities through statutory means. Michael gained criminal law experience as he participated in ASU's Public Defender Clinic. As a Rule 39 Certified Limited Practice Student, he gained experience speaking in the courtroom as he represented defendants in sentencing hearings, and in a jury trial.

Michael enjoys spending time with his son and his family. He also enjoys going to any Arizona sports game he can get tickets to, hiking to the top of Piastewa Peak, and playing a round of golf at Palo Verde golf course. Outside of the desert, Michael loves traveling to national parks, most recently visiting Glacier National Park in Montana.
