Introducing Parker Dippel, a dynamic attorney with a diverse background and a passion for advocating for justice. Parker will be joining the Professional Liability & Bad Faith Trial Group.

During his college years at Arizona State University, Parker interned for both Congressman Schweikert and Senator McCain, gaining valuable insight into the legislative process and public policy. He continued to expand his legal expertise by serving as a law clerk for several offices, where he honed his research and analytical skills. He graduated from the W.P. Carey School of Business with a B.S. in Finance in May 2019.

While in law school, Parker showcased his exceptional advocacy abilities by winning the prestigious Jenckes Cup Closing Argument Competition. He also demonstrated his commitment to making a difference in the legal field as the founder and president of the Family Legal Interest Project, a testament to his dedication to serving the community. Parker earned his J.D., as well as a Certificate in Trial Advocacy and the Highest Pro Bono Distinction (for 900 hours of pro bono work), from the Arizona State University Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law in May 2024.

With experience in medical risk analysis, Parker brings a unique perspective to his current assignment in the Professional Liability & Bad Faith trial group.

Parker enjoys coaching Mock Trial teams and is a diehard Phoenix Suns fan.
