Stephanie Schneider joins our New Mexico office, where she will work with our partners handling general liability, wrongful death, civil rights, personal injury, property damage and fire loss claims.

Her background includes work as underwriting counsel for a title insurance company, where she was a member of the New Mexico Land Title Association, and at another civil defense firm, where her practice focused on real estate and property law, and drafting dispositive briefs across diverse civil litigation matters.

Stephanie earned her J.D. and M.B.A. through a dual-degree program at the University of New Mexico, graduating in 2019. While in law school, she served as Professional Articles Editor for the New Mexico Law Review, authored a published article, and was awarded the Corporate & Business Law Award. Prior to law school, Stephanie graduated with a B.A. in Architecture from the University of New Mexico School of Architecture and Planning.

Outside of her practice, Stephanie enjoys gardening, travel, time with family – human and animal alike – and supporting her favorite local artist.
